We are a couple who loves to travel. We have been to over 50 countries together, and we have had some amazing experiences. We started this blog to share our stories, tips, and advice with other couples who love to travel.

We believe that travel is one of the best ways to experience the world and grow as a couple. It allows you to see new things, meet new people, and learn about different cultures. Travel can also be a great way to bond with your partner and create lasting memories.

If you are planning a trip with your partner, we encourage you to do some research and find a destination that you both will enjoy. There are so many amazing places to see in the world, so you are sure to find something that suits your interests.

Once you have chosen a destination, it is important to start planning your itinerary. This will help you make the most of your time and ensure that you see everything you want to see. Be sure to include a mix of activities, such as sightseeing, hiking, and dining out.

It is also important to set a budget for your trip. This will help you avoid overspending and ensure that you have enough money to enjoy your vacation. Be sure to factor in the cost of airfare, accommodation, food, and activities.

Once you have planned your itinerary and set a budget, it is time to start packing. Be sure to pack light and only bring the essentials. You will also want to make sure that you have all of the necessary travel documents, such as your passport and visa.

When you are finally ready to go, be sure to relax and enjoy your trip. Take your time to explore your destination and experience all that it has to offer. And don't forget to take lots of pictures!.

- Rome, Italy: Rome is a historical and cultural treasure trove. We love exploring the Colosseum, the Vatican City, and the Trevi Fountain.
