Whether you seek the immersive experience of a classic novel or the thought-provoking insights of a short story, the Gallery of Stories holds an endless treasure trove of literary gems.

Masterpieces of Prose: Novels that Define Literary History

- To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee: A poignant and enduring tale about innocence, morality, and racial prejudice in the American South.

- Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen: A witty and romantic masterpiece that explores the complexities of love, marriage, and social class in Regency England.
- Anna Karenina by Leo Tolstoy: An epic masterpiece that delves into the human psyche, love, and the societal constraints of 19th century Russia.
- The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald: A captivating and tragic tale of love, wealth, and the elusive American Dream during the Roaring Twenties.
- One Hundred Years of Solitude by Gabriel García Márquez: A magical realist masterpiece that weaves together generations of family history, myth, and the fantastical in the town of Macondo.

Short Story Gems: Unforgettable Tales that Resonate

- The Tell-Tale Heart by Edgar Allan Poe: A chilling and suspenseful tale of guilt and madness narrated by an unreliable narrator.
- The Lottery by Shirley Jackson: A disturbing and thought-provoking story that explores the dark side of human nature and mob mentality.

- Hills Like White Elephants by Ernest Hemingway: A brief but powerful story that captures the complexities of a difficult decision and an unspoken truth.
- The Yellow Wallpaper by Charlotte Perkins Gilman: A Gothic masterpiece that explores the psychological and social constraints faced by women in the 19th century.
- Araby by James Joyce: A lyrical and evocative story that captures the longing and disillusionment of adolescence.
