In this in-depth guide, we'll explore the lore, rules, and strategies for fielding the Warden of the Blade in your Warhammer 40,000 games. Whether you're a seasoned veteran or a new player just starting out, this guide will provide you with everything you need to know about this elite unit.

Lore

The Warden of the Blade is a member of the Adeptus Custodes, an ancient and secretive organization tasked with protecting the Emperor of Mankind.

The Custodes are genetically engineered to be the ultimate warriors, and they are armed with the finest weapons and armor that the Imperium has to offer. The Warden of the Blade is no exception, and he is considered to be one of the most skilled and experienced warriors in the entire Custodes.

The Warden of the Blade's primary duty is to protect the Emperor from harm. He is always stationed near the Emperor's throne, and he is responsible for leading the Custodes in battle against any threats that may arise. The Warden of the Blade has fought in countless battles over the centuries, and he has never been defeated. He is a true legend among the Adeptus Custodes, and he is feared by all who know his name.

Rules

The Warden of the Blade is a powerful unit in Warhammer 40,000. He has a Toughness of 5, a Wounds characteristic of 6, and a Save of 3+. He is also armed with a Sentinel Blade, which is a Power Sword that grants him a Strength of 8 and an AP of -3. In addition, the Warden of the Blade has the following special rules:

- Eternal Warrior: The Warden of the Blade cannot be slain by normal means. If he is reduced to 0 Wounds, he will simply return to full health at the start of your next turn.
- Master of the Blade: The Warden of the Blade has a +1 to his Strength and Attack characteristics when using his Sentinel Blade.
- Guardian of the Emperor: The Warden of the Blade can re-roll any failed saving throws against attacks that target the Emperor.

The Warden of the Blade is a very versatile unit that can be used in a variety of ways. He can be used to protect the Emperor from harm, or he can be used to lead the Custodes in battle. He is also a very effective fighter in his own right, and he can easily take down even the most powerful enemies.

Strategies

There are a number of different strategies that you can use when fielding the Warden of the Blade in your Warhammer 40,000 games. Here are a few tips:

- Use the Warden of the Blade to protect the Emperor. The Warden of the Blade's primary duty is to protect the Emperor from harm. He should always be stationed near the Emperor's throne, and he should be ready to intercept any threats that may arise.
- Use the Warden of the Blade to lead the Custodes in battle. The Warden of the Blade is a natural leader, and he can inspire the Custodes to fight harder and more effectively. He should be placed at the front of the Custodes formation, and he should be used to lead the charge into battle.
- Use the Warden of the Blade to take down powerful enemies. The Warden of the Blade is a very powerful fighter in his own right, and he can easily take down even the most powerful enemies. He should be used to target enemy characters and other high-value targets.

The Warden of the Blade is a powerful and versatile unit that can be used in a variety of ways in Warhammer 40,000. He is a loyal protector of the Emperor, a skilled leader, and a deadly fighter. If you're looking for a unit that can add some serious firepower to your army, the Warden of the Blade is a great choice.
